April 2015 Chair's Message

Wow! If you missed the Meeting Speaker last month, Ron James brought a powerful and well delivered message. His story was a moving tale of ups and downs that brought him to the spot he is in right now. The tale contained humor, sorrow, despair, and relief along with a real life application of good, better, best.

This month we return to York for dinner at the Four Points and a presentation by Tom Russell, President of Junior Achievement regarding how we can inspire the next generation to be successful. Preparing for the future has always been a challenge but these days it seems an even more immense tasks then is years past.

Brian Davis, Chair ASQ Section 503

What: Inspiring the next generation to be successful in a global economy

Students entering the 21st century workplace will face an occupational world unrecognizable to their parents. Preparing students to meet these challenges is a responsibility that must begin today. Now more than ever, the entire community needs to work together to help Empower the Future generation.

The Reality of Today - Scores from the Programme for International Student Assessment (PISA) dropped again in 2012. The United States is now ranked 36th in math, and 28th in science, and 24th in reading among 15-year olds worldwide.

Junior Achievement is a non-profit organization which is a partnership between business and educators to help inspire students to value their education. This year the organization will reach over 46,000 students in South Central PA with programs focused on financial literacy, entrepreneurship, and work readiness from Kindergarten to 12th grade.

Who: Tom Russell - President of Junior Achievement of South Central PA

Tom is currently the President of Junior Achievement of South Central PA and has been on staff since 2006. He has been a JA volunteer since 1988. He was a recipient of the volunteer Gold Leadership Award in 2004.

Prior to this, he spent over thirty years in Human Resources in the retail industry. He moved to York, PA in 1986 from Oklahoma City. He is a graduate from Wichita State University with a Bachelor of Science degree in Business. Tom is married to Chris and they have two children, Matthew and Phillip and two grandchildren.
