Keynote Address: "Why achieving 'marital bliss' and engaging 'lovers' into the partnership is important to close the 'skills' gap!" This somewhat interactive and unorthodox dinner presentation will provide at least five potential secrets ensuring ways the private and public sectors can more easily and quickly move from dating to engagement to 'marital bliss' in closing the growing skills gaps we currently face in South Central Pennsylvania. In addition, it will also provide insights on how to effectively engage and manage 'lovers' in a way that will enhance the partnership to remain fresh, exciting, and meaningful rather than ending in a costly and acrimonious divorce.

Who: John J. "Ski" Sygielski, Ed.D, became the seventh president of HACC, Central Pennsylvania's Community College, in July 2011. His previous appointments include president of Mt. Hood Community College in Gresham, Oregon, and president of Lord Fairfax Community College in Middletown, Virginia. He began his professional career as a teacher in a Chicago inner city school followed by a stint as a corporate trainer for two Fortune 500 companies. He transitioned to a community college career at College of DuPage in Glen Ellyn, Illinois where he began his community college administration and college teaching career. Ski is the past chairman of the board for the American Association of Community Colleges (AACC) and AACC's 21st-Century Commission on the Future of Community Colleges.
